STATIC RADIO

WHAT IS STATIC RADIO?

The Static Web Site's first episode was on January 1, 1999, in a vain attempt to make the world hear the off-kilter and sophomoric ramblings of Miles Tidal and Bob LeMent. Now 24 years and counting they continue their weekly stream-of-consciousness dialogues. As you may have discerned from listening, we do no preparation or use any manners or decorum to provide a fully improvised piece of comedy.

WHY SHOULD WE BE YOUR GUEST?

Why have us on as your guest, reliable funny content. With over 1000 stories to draw from, and building every week, there is probably not a topic that we can't cover. If you want relatable humor, we are the guest for you.
